

UKSG exists to encourage the exchange of ideas on printed and electronic serials and the process of scholarly communication. In a dynamic environment, UKSG works to

- promote discussion and the free flow of information on serials matters and associated technology
- develop links between all parties in the serials information chain
- encourage professional awareness, stimulate research and provide a programme of training and education.

UKSG is a registered charity and a company limited by guarantee. It is the only organization spanning the wide range of interest and activity between serials producers and readers.

With a membership of 500 organizations, a third of them based outside the UK, UKSG engages a broad cross-section of people concerned with the publication, distribution and use of serials. The Annual Conference and Exhibition is the highlight of the calendar, combining high-quality conference papers, many of which are later published in this journal, with opportunities to network and explore the latest product and service technologies.

UKSG runs an extensive programme of affordable educational events, as well as one-day professional seminars on topics of the moment. A fortnightly electronic newsletter, Serials-eNews, keeps members up to date with the latest developments. The Group also manages the lis-e-resources discussion list which encourages debate and exchange of information on serials matters.

The 2009 membership fee is £95 + VAT. Further details are available from the UKSG Business Manager, Hilltop, Heath End, Newbury RG20 0AP. Tel. +44 (0)1635 254292; fax: +44 (0)1635 253826; e-mail: alison@uksg.org
